Bestselling authors Rebecca Zanetti, Laurelin Paige, Heather Graham, and Kristen Ashley bring you four dark tales, four sensual stories, four page-turners. "Vixen" by Rebecca Zanetti introduces Tabi Rusko, a demoness with the cunning and instincts that come with her species. But Tabi has always spent more time exploring than training, and her fighting skills are okay at best. One sexy man—a human cop, no less—is responsible for her being stuck in a small hick town and forced into a human anger management group that's crazier than her. To make matters worse, his dangerous blue eyes and hard body leave her breathless and ready to rumble, and his overbearing attitude is a challenge a demoness can't refuse.

Evan O'Connell just wants to enjoy his time out of the military by policing a small town. The last thing he needs is a stunning, too sexy pain in the butt blonde casing his bank and causing a ruckus everywhere she goes. There's something different about her that he can't figure out, and when she offers him immortality in exchange for her freedom, he discovers that isn't enough.

"Slash" by Laurelin Paige introduces Camilla Fasbender, a secret underneath her posh accent and designer clothes lies the evidence of her pain. Every heartbreak, every bad day, every setback has left a scar from behind her camera. She shows the world what to see and it isn't her until him. He sees right through her carefully constructed facade and he's going to slash it all to pieces.

"The Dead Heat of Summer" by Heather Graham takes us to New Orleans, where Casey Nicholson has always been a little bit sensitive. She puts it to use in her shop in Jackson Square, where she reads tarot cards and tea leaves. She's not a medium, but she can read people well. When the ghost of Lena Marceau comes to her in the cemetery, shedding tears and begging for help, Casey is at first terrified and then determined. Lena knows she was the victim of a malicious murder. Casey isn't sure how she can help Lena, she isn't an investigator or with any arm of law. enforcement but when she receives a visit from special agent ryder mckinley ironically an fbi agent she realizes that she's being drawn into a deadly game where she must discover the truth or possibly die trying.

George Washington Rains to build a gunpowder factory an engineer and West Point graduate Rains relied primarily on a written pamphlet rather than on practical experience in building the powder mill yet he succeeded in designing a model of efficiency and safety he sited the facilities at Augusta, Georgia because of the city’s central location, canal transportation access to water power, railroad facilities, and relative security from attack as much a story of people as of machinery never for want of powder recounts the ingenuity of the individuals involved with the project a cadre of talented subordinates including Frederick Wright C Shaler Smith William Pendleton and Isadore P Girardey assisted Rains to a degree not previously appreciated by historians this volume also documents the coordinated outflow of gunpowder and ammunition and Rains’s difficulty in preparing for the defense of Augusta today a lone chimney along the Savannah river stands as the only reminder of the munitions facility that once occupied that site with its detailed reproductions of architectural and mechanical schematics and its expansive vista on the Confederacy never for want of powder restores the Augusta powder works to its rightful place in American lore
